RE: BONEL KENNELS, INC.
Ref. No. F75967

Dear Madam or Sir:

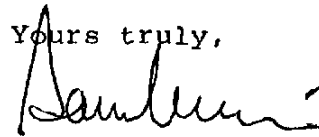

I am the new registered agent for Bonel Kennels, Inc., and have signed the reinstatement application enclosed.

It is my understanding that my client has spoken with your office and explained that the old registered agent currently has legal trouble of his own (see enclosed articles), and your office advised that the corporation would be reinstated upon receipt of the reinstatement application plus the $165.00 fee ($61.25 + $103.75).

The $173.75 check enclosed is to cover that $165.00 fee plus an additional $8.75 for a Certificate of Status.

Please let us know if you need anything else. Thank you for your cooperation.

Yours truly,

Sam A. Carter

Attorney convicted of contempt of court

Miami attorney Harold Braxton was convicted Friday by a federal jury of obstruction of justice and contempt of court.

Braxton represented a defendant in a Medicare fraud case, Leonor Rodriguez, whose personal and corporate assets were frozen in 1995. Braxton was charged with diverting more than $100,000 in frozen Medicare and Medicaid funds to his attorney-client account, then taking $50,000 for himself and funneling $29,000 to Rodriguez.

U.S. District Judge K. Michael Moore will sentence Braxton Dec. 5. Braxton, 63, faces a maximum of 10 years in prison, fines of up to $250,000 and restitution.

Attorney indicted on Medicare fraud

By DAVID LYONS
Herald Staff Writer

During 30 years of practice, Miami civil attorney Harold Braxton never had any trouble with the law — until Wednesday.

A federal grand jury indicted him on charges of conspiracy to defraud the United States of Medicare funds, obstruction of justice and contempt of court.

Two years ago, Braxton, 62, represented Leonor Rodriguez in a civil case brought by the government, which alleged that several businesses operated by Rodriguez had illegally taken more than $1 million from Medicare.

U.S. District Judge Ursula Ungaro-Benages froze all of Rodriguez's personal and corporate assets. But Braxton, over a period of six weeks after the court order, diverted more than $103,000 in frozen Medicare and Medicaid funds into his attorney-client trust account, the government contends.

Later, the indictment alleges, Braxton funneled $29,000 to his client, and took $50,000 for legal fees.

Miami attorney Donald Bierman, who graduated from the University of Miami School of Law with Braxton in 1965, is representing his former classmate. He said Braxton would plead not guilty today at a hearing before a federal magistrate.

Bierman said he is confident
