Dear Sir or Madam,

In regards my recent receipt of my 1997 Propt Corporation Annual Report, I was surprised to find that it was my second notice. I do not recall receiving the first notice. If you look at my record of payment I think you will find I have consistently sent payment on a timely basis. We had moved and had an address change. We had been involved in remodeling our building. These special circumstances may have contributed to this occurrence. I called on the phone and a gentleman said to send in this appeal with a check for the usual amount with an explanation. Thank you for your consideration of this situation

Sincerely,

Michael Welch
