Yesterday we received a copy of our 2000 Uniform Business Report (UBR) from your office informing us we would owe a $400.00 late fee unless a corrected report is sent within 30 days of your letter. Nothing was referenced in regards to the items that were incorrect on the Report. In addition, only a copy of the first page was sent back and I did not have a full copy of this year's instructions. I looked at last year's instructions for the Report, which was slightly different from this year's Report. I then determined that item eight should have been blank since there was not any changes and an officer listed in item eleven should sign item thirteen. I hope that this is what you needed to file this. If you need further corrections, please let me know. Gilman & Ciocia has been understaffed for quite a long time and I just started one week ago, so going forward, things should be done on a more timely and accurate basis.

Sincerely,

Jim Chochrek
