You may submit a completed report and the regular $150 fee along with a letter of explanation. You should not be charged the late fee if you follow these instructions.

Uniform Business Report
Document #F93000001419

We respectfully request that you abate the proposed additional $400 late fee for the aforementioned report. We did not receive the Uniform Business Report until July 5, 2001. One of our standard office procedures is to date stamp each article of mail with the specific date of receipt.

Since we did not receive the report until July 5, 2001, we could not possible have met the filing deadline. We received last year's report in February 2000 and remitted the report and payment on February 10, 2000.

I do not know why we did not receive the 2001 report until July 5, 2001.

Again, please abate the late charge assessment for the 2001 report.

Please contact the undersigned should you have further questions regarding this matter.

RE: 2001 Uniform Business Report, Document #F93000001419

Please review the enclosed copy of the email letter sent on July 31, 2001 regarding the $400.00 late fee. As mentioned in the email letter, we did not receive the Uniform Report until July 5, 2001, (copy of stamped document enclosed).

As mentioned by Jennifer in the email, if we send this letter with the attached completed report with our explanation, there will be no late charge.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter and if you should need any further information, please be sure to contact us..

Sincerely,

Susan M. Grist
