To Whom It May Concern:

I am enclosing this letter to inform your office of two important issues. First, the mailing address for our company on your Annual Report Packet is incorrect. I had sent a letter with the 97 packet alerting you to the change, as our offices moved out of the production facility (see change of address in enclosed packet).

Second, and as a result of the first, we did not receive our First Notice for 1998. We were not concerned with having not received it because, according to when we filed last year (July 15th), we should not have expected to receive the packet until about this time (early July). I was shocked to receive the Second Notice at the time I expected to receive the First.

I am enclosing our check for $150.00 as I do not feel we should be penalized for not having received our First Notice. If you have any further questions, please feel free to contact me directly.

Sincerely,

Peter W. Alcorn, President
