Re: Corp. Annual Report we filed on January 3, 1997

Dear Div. Of Corporations:

I recently received a past due notice from you stating that you had not received our Corp. Annual Report. I filed this report on January 3, 1997 by mailing it with a check in the amount of $ 165 in your envelope to your mailing address. I am enclosing copies of the previous filing along with this new filing. I guess you have never received the check as it still appears as outstanding on my bank reconciliation.

I hope you will please consider my diligence in trying to file back in January and not assess me any additional charges or fees. Thanking you in advance,

Very Truly Yours,

Robert T. Vaden
