Dear Sir,

On 3-14-98 I sent a check for 150.00 to you. I had previously called and you sent me a ~~blank~~ Corp. report because I realized I had not received the pre printed form I had received in previous years. I filled it out and returned it with a check. It was returned to me because I had left out some information. It was again returned to me because somehow you could not find the name. ~~I~~^{you} returned it stating I had not filled out the title. So I filled out that I was president. All of this was done well within the allotted time. I returned all your inquiries within 2 days.

I just received my second notice. The check I sent you has not cleared the bank. Please check your records and somewhere you will find I returned all your requests well within the allotted time with the check. This will come to 400.00

Thank you -

Edward E Dush
