- ♦ The Application By Foreign Corporation For Authorization To Transact Business In Florida, submitted February 15, 1995 contained erroneous information

Re: Application by Foreign Corporation

Dear Mr. Mayes,

Enclosed you will find our application, a Certificate of Status dated 2/07/95 from the state of California and a check for the filing fee and the agent designation fee. Since Marketex first commenced doing business in Florida in 1982, we have been exempt from registering to do business as a foreign corporation. Per Section 607.1501, subsection (2), paragraphs c, f, g, and h, our leasing activities are described as business that would not require a certificate of authority from the Department of State. We are applying now as it has been brought to our attention that we should be registered to better protect ourselves from any future legal liabilities that may be addressed in a Florida court.

Thank you for your help on the phone on February 2nd. I hope you find everything in order.

Sincerely,

Candace C. Embrey
Vice President
