This correspondence is in reference to the penalty fee being charged to Snow & Associates, Inc for transacting business in Florida without obtaining a certificate of authority to do so.

This is also a sworn affidavit attesting to the fact that only the following activities took place in Florida during the calendar year 1994, And that the penalty should be waived.

I have reviewed s.607.1501 of Florida's revenue laws and will attest to the fact that although I maintained a bank account in Florida, I only transacted business through independent contractors in this state. My main source of revenue was generated in the northeastern United States. Therefore, According to s.607.1501(2)(c) & 607.1501(2)(e) I did not transact business within the state.
