Re: CaroTrans International, Inc. ("CaroTrans")

Reference No. W95000022461

Dear Mr. Dickinson:

CaroTrans originally filed an application as a foreign corporation to obtain a certificate of authority to transact business. Your department denied processing the application on the basis that an amount of $1,200.00 be paid to cover both the annual report and penalty fees (see letter attached).

In reviewing Florida Statutes Section 607.1501, I have discovered that CaroTrans is not required to obtain a certificate of authority as it transacts business in interstate commerce. I have provided an Affidavit to that effect. As a result, CaroTrans does not need an official certificate of authority to transact business. Therefore, please return the $70.00 filing fee to my attention.

Please note that the original request to obtain a certificate of authority was initiated as a result of a requirement of the Jacksonville Electric Company. Can you provide a certificate of authority to satisfy such request, although CaroTrans is not required to obtain a certificate?

Please contact me if you have any questions or concerns.

Sincerely.
