Director:

Please be advised that I did not receive a first notice to file my annual report. Upon receipt of the second notice I telephoned your offices to verify the fee and discovered that the first notice sent in January did not reach me, thereby necessitating additional penalties in the fee. I was advised to explain the circumstances to you, submit the report directly to you and enclose a check in the amount of the original fee, $150.00.

If you were to check my records you would find that I have been scrupulously careful to pay at the first notice to avoid the additional fees. Thank you for your consideration in this matter.

Sincerely,

Merle J. Kravetz
President and Registered Agent
