Request for Waiver:

At the suggestion of your service rep, Christy, I am respectfully requesting a waiver of late payment charges due to extenuating circumstances. In early February of this year my husband Jack suffered a heart attack and embolism, which was followed by a fall, hip injury and a concussion, after which time he was incapacitated for months. Filing the annual corporate was one of the many things he failed to do, due to a rather foggy recollection of his responsibilities.

We apologize for not making the proper arrangements in advance of potential pitfalls, our family will make sure this does not happen again.

I am also unable to find the copy of the original 2000 annual report, I am therefore, again at the suggestion of Christy, utilizing the 2nd edition of the report with proper modifications.

I thank you for your kind consideration in this matter and sincerely hope that all meets with your approval.

Carol McKernan
