Dear Sirs:

We have attached to this letter our application for reinstatement in the State of Florida. We realize that the form is late, for which we apologize, and we are requesting a waiver of the late filing for this form due to the information provided below.

The Company filed a Chapter 11 petition under the US Bankruptcy Code on February 25, 1997. Since that time, the Company has undergone a transition in upper management. Evidently the annual report was received by the prior management but never passed on to the new management team. When we received your Notice of Revocation we immediately began filling out the document to be submitted to your offices. We spoke with a person in your offices on Wednesday, November 5, who instructed us to send this letter to request a waiver of having to pay the late filing amount.

We appreciate your time and understanding in this matter. We have attached a check with the reinstatement form for the original amount due of $165.00. If you should have any questions, please give me a call at 770-432-2284.

Thank you in advance for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Gerald Hancock
Interim Secretary
