RE: Diva Acquisition Corp (F960000098) and Steve Madden Ltd, Co. (F95000005874)

Dear Sir or Madam:

This letter is to request that our two Companies, Diva Acquisition and Steve Madden Ltd., Co. are reinstated as companies qualified to do business in the State of Florida. Although we were diligent in filing our annual report, an unusual chain of events resulted in our certificate of authority being revoked.

We did not receive our annual reports until July, which is two months past the due date. We immediately completed the forms, signed them and returned them with a check in the amount of $70. On letters dated August 4, you notified us that due to the late filing, the filing fee was $550, which left a balance due of $480. Because of the underpayment, the forms were rejected. Please note that since these forms were duly signed, your letter did not mention the signature requirement.

On August 12, we requested that the late payment fee be waived since we did not receive the forms on a timely basis. We enclosed a check for $80 bringing the total amount paid for each Company up to the correct fee of $150. As a reference, we attached unsigned forms to the checks.

On a letter dated August 19, you informed us that you accepted the $150, but that the form was rejected due to lack of a signature. However, the original form that we mailed to was duly signed.

Since you do indeed have properly signed forms from us, and since you have accepted the payment of the $150 fee, we request that our two Companies be reinstated. We have attached two new completed forms with proper signatures for your review. As

David Aaron

mentioned, we have paid $150 filing fee (and an additional $8.75 for certificates) for both Companies.

Thank you for your help in this matter.

Sincerely,
