Dear Ms. Lott,

Thank you very much for our conversation on May 10, 1996. You were most helpful and I trust you will be able to resolve this for us.

In 1990 my husband and I bought a home in Florida expecting to use it part time during some of the winter months. In 1991 we made the decision to move permanently to Florida and arranged for our son to continue our business in New York. During 1991 and 1992 it became evident that our son could not keep the business viable. I filed the Federal income taxes from our address in Florida even though the business was in New York. As is evident in the Federal 1120 during the fiscal year June 1991 through May 1992 there was no income. At the end of 1993 we made the decision to try to continue the business on our own here in Florida and our son went on to other things.

It has been extremely difficult to restart the business. In the interest of saving money we did not engage a new accountant in Florida but continued to use the old accountant in New York. On his advise we submitted Florida tax returns going back to 1991. We also applied to your office for qualification. When asked what date to enter on the documents our accountant, rather off the cuff, said 1991 since that is when we moved here.

Since talking with you I have now received notice from the Florida Department of Revenue that I also owe $300.00 per year in late filing fees for 1992, 1993 and 1994!

We are struggling very hard to reconstruct our business. In doing so we incorrectly took the advise of an out of state accountant who, obviously did not know Florida requirements. In addition we are running at a very high loss and it will take several more years to break even.

Our original application stated, on the accountant's advise, that we first transacted business in Florida on June 1, 1991. In truth our son continued the business in New York until June 1993 when we took over. Please notice the tremendous losses we have run up and are trying very hard to recover. I respectfully submit that we pay $1400.00 for 1993-1994 and 1994-1995.

Again, I very much appreciated your help and hope you can continue to help us.

Sincerely,

Nancy D. Mahlman

Dear Ms. Lott,

Thank you for your phone call yesterday. The following will be helpful in settling our account with the Department of State.

Our corporate fiscal year is June 1, through May 31. I am aware that the Department's year is a calendar year. Therefore, it is important to state that Robert O. Mahlman, Inc. (The Mahlman Company) did not receive any monies or sign and contracts until after December 31, 1993. The first contract and monies were received during the Spring of 1994. In other words, monies were received by our corporation for services rendered during calendar year 1994 and 1995. No monies were received during calendar year 1993.

I hope the above is sufficient for you to help us settle our account.

Cordially,

Nancy A. Mahlman
