RE: AVIATION SALES COMPANY
Document # F96000003170

Dear Michelle:

Pursuant to our conversation with Jay Dakoriya, I am writing this letter in regards to the above-mentioned foreign corporation's 2002 Uniform Business Report (UBR). Enclosed is the 2002 UBR as well as remittance of $150. This report is inadvertently being filed past the stated due date as a result of significant restructuring activities undertaken late in 2001. The company has not only replaced the executive management team formerly in place; but also has moved its offices/ headquarters from the previously reported Miramar, Florida location to Greensboro, North Carolina. Only recently, I learned that the Florida UBR for the company had not been filed when I received notice from the Florida Department of State. Thus, the initial report was not received presumably due to the transition in office and/or personnel.

In light of the above circumstances, we would like to request that any late fees / additional charges be waived. We regret that we were unable to file the UBR sooner and would appreciate your consideration in processing this application to avoid dissolution of the company. Please do not hesitate to contact Jay Dakoriya or myself if we can be of further assistance at (336) 668-4410 extension #8012. Thank you.

Regards,
