Dear Sir/Madam:

Annual reports for the above referenced corporations were filed on a timely basis. The state of Florida rejected the reports because name change amendments had not been filed with the state. Therefore, the annual reports were resubmitted together with name change amendments within the time period allowed by the state. The amendments were rejected by the state of Florida and returned along with the annual reports.

We are in the process of obtaining the documentation from the state of Delaware required by the state of Florida in order to properly file the amendments and the annual reports. Since the original reports were filed on a timely basis and we have been trying in good faith to comply with each additional request, we do not feel that we should be subject to filing penalties for the above referenced companies.

Sincerely,

W. Michael Kipphut
Vice President Treasurer
