STORE INCEDENT REPORT

Date: 08/27/13 Time: 5:05 pm

Customer Name: Mike (last name unknown)

This customer was in the store for over an hour making copies and putting letters together for mailing. Just before 5:00 pm I had to leave to go down to Palm Beach Gardens to attend our Network meeting, I told the customer how many copies he had made and that my associates would finish his transaction. After I left he made remarks that my Associate Dex should take care of the aids on his face. Dex did not understand the remark. He then wanted to know about a postal inspector because he did not trust the ONE in the back, referring to my Associate Michael, who's worked here for 5 yrs. This is not the first time this customer has started arguments when he is in the Store and always when I'm not here. Just before he left he made more remarks about Michael and this started an argument between the Dex and the customer.

Date 08/28/13 Time: 5:15pm

the customer called and asked for the manager. I told him that was me. He started yelling and telling me I needed to fire the two HOMO's and that I had no business hiring or working with that KIND OF People. He made other remarks that I could not hear clearly. I told him not to ever come back into my Store. He said he would take it up with Corporate. I said fine and hung up.

Date: 08/28/13 Time: 5:45pm

this customer called my home asking for Longhorn Global Services (my legal name). My wife told him he had the wrong number. He called back a few minutes later asking the same question. She told him to call the store number. He asked her who the registered agent was; she told him she had no clue. He made some other remarks that she did not understand. She called me on my cell phone to tell me and I told her what was happening. My home phone is not connected to our corporate name so I don't know how he made that connection

I'm reporting this today because I'm not sure what this customer might do. My Associates are not gay. And this customer is defiantly a homophobic. Which makes me concerned for them and my Center?

Thanks,

Ben C Saltz

This concern can be placed under the designation of 'Crimes against Nature' not only are there serious concerns about the customer service of the above noted business, but there may be a serious danger to the general public from this store, at least one individual there appears to have aids, and the establishment has not forewarned the public. The mission of the Department of Health is to protect and promote the health of all residents and visitors in the state through organized state and community efforts, including cooperative agreements between counties, please assist along with the above, the appropriate county representatives, in order to remedy this serious health problem. After patronizing this store, one of the employees, obviously a homosexual, attempted to integrate his life-style into his job description as it relates to customer service. I am offended at an attempt by someone to 'serve' me in this manner, as I was offended on the date of the contention, I usually avoid the gay one when I have to be in this store, and I never saw the aids guy before. At any rate, this led to a disagreement, in which afterwards an attempt at calling the business owner was initiated, and this mainly because the individual threatened to 'make one of the letters disappear.'

The manager of the store, who doesn't appear to be too far in relation from the AIDS person whose face has obvious h.i.v. lesions breaking out upon it, when contacted, stated that 'he spoke with a customer about the incident,' ect...There was no customer in the store at the time of the incident. The Registered Agent, when contacted, stated that 'this happens a lot,' and pretended to not have any relation to the store, gave then the number back to the 2046 store location. An individual attempting to use a store as a recruiting station for his homosexual urges is aggravating enough, and usually nothing can be done about it. The manager of the store probably has some type of affinity for this kind of behavior or lifestyle, and so has protected these individuals no matter what they do. This supposed store manager chooses to work with people like this for a specific reason, to expect him to veer away from his personal agenda for a customer is just not rational. Not to mention the fact that you have a supposed adult taking the story of some high school kid as gospel. As far as being gay, the customer is supposed to be afraid to say anything about it because it 'takes one to know one' but I'm saying something about it anyway because handling people's mail, or receiving a pen in which someone with AIDS has, for example, 'chewed upon the cap' may be detrimental. All of these U.P.S. stores seem to have the same problem, weirdos who are always worried and anxious about some petty or minor issue, or who create something to be more than it actually is. You also have a situation where the local listed registered agent attempts to hide and obscure not only their own identity and association, but the correct party contact.
