Dear Sir or Madam:

I am receipt of a second notice of an annual report request. I called the annual report section to see why I never received an initial request and could not get any reason confirmed for the omission. The only possible explanation that I can think of is that the initial report was sent to our registered agent, but the second request was sent to the corporate office.

I can't think of any explanation why the form was neglected in this office because I am a one person tax department and all tax information goes to my desk. I have absolutely no record of receiving the Form. Because of this confusion I would like to pay the $150 annual report and supplemental fee, but not the $400 penalty amount. I am enclosing the $150 fee and would respectfully request an abatement of the penalty amount.

If you have any questions I can be reached at 201-935-3400 ext. 8509. Thank you for your cooperation.

Sincerely,

Irwin Mittleman
