Dear Sir/Madam:

I note in your section on "Frequently Asked Questions" on the 2002 Uniform Business Report that it is possible to waive the $400 late filing fee for this report. As you see from our new address noted, we moved during the time period that apparently the original bill was mailed. We have a very small business of one employee (myself) and live/conduct our business from our boat. Mail is not always reliable and we subsequently did not receive the original notice. Please accept our apologies for overlooking this fee. If you have any questions, or if this is not possible, please direct correspondence to our new post office box.

Thank you for your consideration.

Dennis R. Szymczak
President
