To whom it may concern,

I wrote a (after several phone calls) letter explaining I never received the annual filing fee notice. I did have a change of address with the post office, and when I received the second notice for the first time, I called, was told to write the letter and send $150⁰⁰. I received a letter back, saying I owe $400⁰⁰ still. I believe they ignored my letter and so I called corp. Sec. again and from that phone call, I writing again to let you know they have my $150⁰⁰ and to please waiver the $400⁰⁰. Sorry, I can't send you a copy of the letter because I didn't make one but I do appreciate your assistance. Nothing has changed on my annual report I have no corrections to make, everything should stay the same as it was last year. Thank you!
