Dear Ms. Sindt:

I am writing in response to Letter Number 998A00013828 regarding the registration of The National Conference of Christians and Jews, Inc. to do business in the State of Florida.

Our application for the registration was done at the request of the City of Coral Springs, Florida with whom we have worked to provide diversity training for their high school students.

In consulting our records in our national office files in New York City, we found that we have consistently submitted materials for the permission to solicit funds in the State of Florida from the Secretary of Agriculture's Office. In addition, we most recently submitted a request for a Consumer's Certificate of Exemption to the Florida Department of Revenue. We also have the Occupational License from the City of Sunrise, FL, # 9801965 Exempt Status, expiration date 9-30-98. Interestingly, none of these offices required or alluded to the need to register with your office.

Our first office in the state of Florida opened in 1935 in Miami. Since then, we have opened offices in Tampa, Jacksonville, Ft. Lauderdale and most recently in Orlando. In each of these cases, many prominent civic and community leaders have served as our board members.

To our knowledge, this is the first time NCCJ had been asked to register to do business. We are well known and maintain a very high profile with community leaders and elected officials. As the nation's premier human relations organization, founded in 1927 with offices in 62 cities in 35 states, we operate from the contributions of individuals and companies.

The National Conference of Christians and Jews, founded in 1927, is a human relations organization dedicated to fighting bias, bigotry and racism in America. The National Conference promotes understanding and respect among all races, religions and cultures through advocacy, conflict resolution and education.

It is our intention to always be in compliance with all laws and regulations, and we sincerely apologize for this lack of registration.

The penalty amount of $7428.75 puts a great burden on a budget of a not-for-profit for whom these dollars represent a huge amount of work. This amount, for instance, would cover lodging and food for 60 students and 15 adults at our three day residential retreats called Metrotown. To obtain these funds to run a typical program, we rely on grants from foundations and the goodwill donations of schools, parents, and board members. We therefore respectfully request the waiver of the penalty of $7428.75 and the assurance that the registration will be kept current hereafter.

The other request in the letter was to complete item #8, the purpose of our organization which is stated in our mission statement written and adopted by our National Board of Trustees:

The National Conference of Christians and Jews, founded in 1927, is a human relations organization dedicated to fighting bias, bigotry and racism in America. The National Conference promotes understanding and respect among all races, religions, and cultures through advocacy, conflict resolution, and education. NCCJ is a not-for-profit 501 (c) 3 tax-exempt organization.

If I can provide you with any other information to help determine the waiver of these fees, please advise. Enclosed is our Annual Report and current Dinner Program which explains in detail our programs. Thank you in advance for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Carol V. Spring, Ph.D.
