Re: Corporate registration,

Dear Ms. Sindt,

Please find enclosed the certification that was requested in order to register 985 Inc. in the State of Florida. I trust that this is the keystone that you need, and if there is anything else just call me at the number listed.

Also, it seems that I have paid twice shuffling the papers back and forth. Enclosed is a copy of the two checks which were both cashed. Can you do anything about getting a refund for one of them sent to me?

So, I guess that will do it for now. Thank you and I remain,

Sincerely yours,

Gregory Garnett

Re: Corporate registration,

Dear Madam or Sir,

Allow me to introduce myself, I am Gregory Garnett. My wife and I have recently moved to Casselberry and plan to open a retail furniture shop in Longwood where we have secured a lease on a space in a plaza at 851 E. State Road 434, Longwood, FL. 23750.

985 Inc. was formed in 1985 to do business in the State of Maryland, and has recently turned over the operations in Maryland to other individuals who opened up their own corporations to operate under. We were involved in the retail sales of food and alcoholic beverages, and held a ON/OFF liquor license in Anne Arundel County. We are registered with the Federal Government as 985 Inc., 985 Bay Ridge Road, Annapolis, MD. 21403, ID# 52-1435511. All tax accounts with that state and the federal government are in good standing.

We would like to register 985 Inc. in Florida, and to continue it's tenure here as a business for profit. The appropriate county and city occupational licenses have been secured.

You will see that I have included two sets of forms since I am not exactly sure which is appropriate, please discard the one which does not apply to our incident.

My wife and I have relocated to assist surviving members of our families which are Florida residents of many years. We now reside in Florida, will employ in Florida, and wish to business in Florida. Please register my corporation accordingly.

Please contact me as you need, thank you and I remain,

Sincerely yours,

Gregory Garnett
