Re: CAT VI, INC.

Dear Mr. Toner:

Freida in your office suggested that I send this letter to you.

This Company relies on our CPA firm to track deadlines for them. Due to a misunderstanding, we thought they had terminated in 2002. As you can see from the enclosed UBR, the Company moved during 2002. Because of the move, they did not receive a preprinted UBR.

We regret that the combination of events outlined above has caused this UBR to be filed after May 1. If you can consider lost mail and reliance on our CPA firm as reasonable cause for late filing, we will be most grateful.

In the hope that you will be able to accept extenuating circumstances, you will find enclosed the UBR, along with $150 payment. We have marked our calendars and will be sure to make the May 1 deadline in 2004.

Thank you for your consideration. Please let us know if we can provide any additional information.

Sincerely,

Jacob Bezner
