To Whom It May Concern:

I called your office and spoke with Elizabeth today. I received from the corporate office in Maine a second request for filing the annual report. I never received a first notice. After speaking with Elizabeth, she stated that I should fill this form out and submit the amount of $150.00 not $550.00 as this is a penalty fee for being late. I certainly would have paid this earlier if I had known it was due. I qualified my corporation to do business in Florida in October of 1998 and I just assumed I would file again in the fall. I do hope that this letter clarifies this mistake.

Lon Black
