Dear Sir or Madam:

I have enclosed the Annual Report for G Day Associates, Inc. a South Carolina Corporation authorized to do business in Florida.

As you will see, this is the Second Notification that I have completed and sent in. Please accept this as my first notification. The reason for this is that I never received the first notification for an annual report. As you will see if you look at my records, my company became authorized to do business in your state on December 31, 1999. I was informed by a woman in your office named Ruth, that the annual reports had already been sent out prior to my qualifying as a foreign corporation with your office. It is for this reason the I respectfully request that the $400.00 dollar penalty be waived.

I want to thank you in advance for your consideration in this matter, and please feel free to contact me if there is any other information that I can provide you to further this request.

Very Truly Yours

Glen Day
