RE: Lands End Construction Enterprises, Inc.

To Whom It May Concern:

I moved to Florida in 1998 and received my contractor's license in 1999. Being new in the state and now having a contractor's license, I am now having to learn what paperwork is required to stay current.

I have received all fees and bills that I have received for the Division of Corporations, however I never received your bills for $150.00 per year and requests for annual reports. On June 1, 1999, I moved to accommodate the licensure regulations of the City of St. Augustine and the County of St. Johns, however my mail must not have been forwarded properly, as I never received any correspondence from your Division. I only learned of the revocation of my corporate status and the money owed to the State of Florida when I attempted to close a loan for a spec house and the closing attorney informed me that my corporation was inactive and I was unable to have the closing until the corporation was again allowed to do business in Florida. Had I known about this problem before today, I certainly would have paid the amount due and resolved the matter promptly so as not to jeopardize my business in Florida.

I plead with you to review this matter and to understand my unfortunate situation. I have enclosed the original signed corporate reinstatement form and a check in the amount of $300.00 for two years of filing fees. However, as a small, one-man business, a $600.00 penalty would set me back and make it very difficult for me to close on the contract I am currently bound by. I therefore respectfully request that you grant the reinstatement waive the penalty. Now that I understand the annual requirements of the State of Florida, I will be sure to promptly pay the annual fee and file the annual reports as they are due.

Thank you in advance for your consideration in this matter.

Sincerely,

Robert Freeman
