To whom it may concern:

As our company has been in business in Florida for many years, we intend on being in business for many more. Unfortunately, we filed our first uniform business report on July 16, 2001 via the United States Postal Service Regular Mail. After inquiring about the status with your office, it was stated that it was never received.

According to our bank records, our check for filing in the amount of $550.00 was never cashed. After inquiring with your office about what to do about our corporation's status, Stacy stated we should download a new report and try again. Only this time we are using Federal Express as our carrier. Would you please accept our new check in the amount of $550.00 and file the enclosed uniform business report. I appreciate your help in expediting this process.

Sincerely,

Mark A. Sniffen
Vice President
