~~13 July 2001~~

To whom it may concern,

I have today gotten your notice forwarded from my accountant's office concerning the 2001 Uniform Business Report. I have not received the first one, which should have been filed in June 2001. It may have been lost in the mail between you and my accountant or from my accountant to me.

I sending today a check to you in the amount of $ 150.00, which I hope you, will accept. Please do not penalize me for mail I didn't receive. Four hundred dollars penalty for a small company like us is a big deal.

I sincerely hope you can let it slide by this year. For this not to happen again, I am also changing address on UBR form so that in future it may come direct to me.

Awaiting your news.

Sincerely,

Steven M. King
Vice-President
