RE: 1998 Annual Corp Report Document # G37512 FEI# 59-2288917
Incorporation Date: 5/9/83

Dear Ms. Mortham:

I am writing to you in reference to our 1998 Annual Corporation Report filing fee. I called your office today and spoke to Shawn ? (I didn't get his last name), to verify whether or not your office had received our filing fee for this year. He did not find where I had mailed it in. He told me to send this amount ($150.00) in along with a letter explaining why our fee is late and that your office was sometimes lenient (expecially for very small businesses), and might forgive and/or excuse the late filing fee penalty this year.

We have been in business since 1983 and have always paid this fee in a timely manner. I had full intentions to send this year's fee in early also and usually pay it when I mail out all our tax forms in April. However; this year we were moving into our new home (we have our office in our home) and somehow the first report was misplaced in all the turmoil.

Today I ran across the 2nd notice and have been looking feverishly for the canceled check where I had paid the fee. But, as luck will have it, couldn't find it.

I know this is a poor excuse for not paying more attention to our obligations, however; I'm only human and it seems that as the years pass along with my eyesight changing and having to now use those bothersome reading glasses, my absentmindedness is getting the best of me too.

All I can do is ask for your leniency for this year and promise to pay early next year and in the future.

Your earliest attention to this matter will be greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,
Bayside Builders of N.W. Florida, Inc.

Linda Clark, Vice Pres.
