RE: Application for Reinstatement
Matrix Systems, Inc.

INFORMATION RELATIVE TO THIS REQUEST:

Matrix Systems, Inc. has enjoyed the privileges of being a Florida Corporation for many years and throughout those many years there has never been a time when we did not file in a timely manner and pay the fee required.

Two years ago, for some reason unknown to me, the annual form was not delivered to us. We had not moved, and had not changed our address, but we did not get a form and--probably because we were busy--did not even think about the fact that it had not come in that year and again in this year. Someone was speaking to me just recently about their annual report, and it occurred to me that I had not sent in a report this year, so I called your department. I found out that I had not done the report for last year too!

I am sending this letter just as the person in your department suggested, requesting that you allow me to reinstate my corporation, and I am also sending you my check in the amount of $300.00, as she suggested, in order to pay the $150.00 for both the years 1998 and 1999. I do not know how this happened, but I sincerely do not believe that it was the fault of anyone of us.

Cordially,

Walter L. Matthes
Walter L. Matthes
President
