To Whom It May Concern:

My cooperation, JM Travel was established in 1983 and we have filed our annual filings on time every year.

Last year, due to the retirement of my corporate attorney, the registered agent was changed to myself. (see attached 98 filing)

I never received a first notice for 1999 and just a few days ago I received a call from my retired attorney stating he received a second notice, showing the $400.00 penalty. Neither of us ever received this first notice and I see you have me listed as the registered agent with my correct address on the inside of the form, but the mailing address shows a different address.

I am enclosing my 1999 filing with the original fee for annual filing. Please insure the mailing address is corrected so there is no problem next year. Should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Jackie Schulman
