Re: # G 55649

Dear Sir or Madam:

Per my telephone conversation of June 14, 2005 to your department, enclosed please find check number 1109 in the amount of $150.00 and The 2005 Annual Report for Aladdin Investment Corporation.

Please be advised that a first copy of the annual report and check number 1094 were timely sent on April 13, 2005. On that same day, I sent the annual report of a second corporation that I am secretary of: Asturias Investments Corp # S 82240. (You should be able to confirm from your records, that since inception of both corporations, I file the Annual Reports every year timely and at the same time).

After receiving copies of the bank statements for both companies, and noticing that the check for Aladdin Investment Corp had not been cashed. I called your department and I was advised that the report had not been received yet, and that I should fill out a new report, write a new check, and include a letter of explanation of the situation.

In light of the above information, I respectfully request, that the 2005 Annual Report for Aladdin Investment Corporation be considered timely filed, and that no late penalties be assessed to the company.

If you have any questions please call me.

Sincerely,

Dunia Del Dago
