To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing to explain our lateness in filing the reports for these two family corporations. Due to a death in the family in April, these report forms were inadvertently mixed with our mother's files. Upon going through her files this week, they were found and we were mortified.

We have never been late in filing these reports, as I am sure your records will indicate, and truthfully, due to our circumstances were not even thinking about these reports.

We appeal to you to waive the penalty for these corporations. Enclosed, please find our check for the normal filing fee in hopes that you will grant our request.

Sincerely,

Sandra Simmons
Secretary
