RE: Chester Development Company

To Whom It May Concern:

Enclosed is a completed Application for Reinstatement and a check for $150.00 to reinstate Chester Development Company as a Florida Corporation. Also included are two documents showing new corporate officers and directors.

Ms. Enna Sinisi, President of Chester Development Corporation died in July 2001. Her oldest daughter, Cynthia Chester then assumed presidency. Unfortunately due to a confrontational relationship between Cynthia Chester and the rest of the officers, she never forwarded any relevant information and did not keep the company business current. All of the corporation records and correspondence went to the address where she lived and none of this information has been made available to the other officers.

ia an inperior independently character Due to trust/estate matters and internal conflicts, the corporation has been deadlocked. However, due to some recent legal/trust developments, we were able to vote Cynthia Chester out as president of the corporation and I was voted in as president on 8/1/02.

I immediately submitted a change of address form to the local post office to have all Chester Development mail forwarded to me. However, the post office did not comply, even after multiple requests. I had to file a formal complaint to the USPS in order to get the company's mail forwarded to me and I just now started receiving the mail. The Notice of Administrative Dissolution or Revocation is the first piece of official corporate mail that I received.

Please accept the $150.00 check as the reinstatement fee required for corporations that have not been receiving official notices.

Thank You,

Edmund A. Chester Jr. President, Chester Development Company
