Dear Sir or Madam:

I am the accountant for the above-referenced client. As requested and advised by your office, I write this letter of reinstatement explaining the circumstances with regard to the apparent dissolution of annual report for the above-referenced client.

My client's mailing address has always been 1430 SW 47th Terrace, Cape Coral, Florida. However, on April 24, 2002, and unbeknownst to my client, the mailing address was changed. Unfortunately, this apparent change of address cannot be explained whatsoever (please see attached downloaded inquiry form).

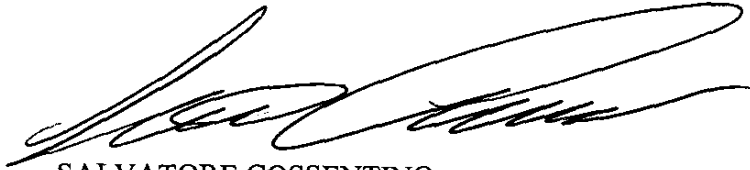

Due to this inadvertent change, my client never received their 2003 annual report. In the last year, my client experienced numerous medical issues, as well as, a death in the family. Because of the many hardships, this particular situation was overlooked. Recently, my client searched the internet wanting to pay the 2004 annual report and noticed that the corporation was dissolved on September 19, 2003. I am immediately forwarding to you a check in the amount of $150.00, representing the fee for the 2003 annual report. It would be greatly appreciated if you would kindly reinstate the above-mentioned corporation and forward the 2004 annual report to the above-referenced address at your earliest convenience.
