Dear Sir/Madam:

I am writing to respectfully request that you accept the payment of $150, which is enclosed with the completed 2000 Uniform Business Report for #G89592, as payment in full for the renewal fee. Our accounting firm had called and spoke with Carol in your office and was informed that our corporation had been dissolved due to lack of timely payment. Unfortunately, we had to close our business location in 1999 due to extensive damage as a result of Hurricane Irene. We never received the 2000 Uniform Business Report to mail by the May 1, 2000 deadline. Our accounting firm ordered this blank form which we have completed with our new address. We never intended to not pay the fee, as we do intend to keep the corporation open. Carol suggested that we include a note with the completed form, and therefore, we are.

Please give this matter your generous consideration and thank you in advance for your time.

Very truly yours,

Myriam Nehamkin, President of Blooming Gals, Inc.
