RE: ANNUAL REPORT FILINGS-1999 PROFIT CORPORATIONS

Dear Mr. Scott:

In pursuance to our telephone conversation of yesterday afternoon, please find enclosed thirteen (13) corporation checks in the respective amounts of $150.00 attached to thirteen (13) Annual Reports. Please note that I never received the first notice for 1999, and I would like the late fees to be waived as we had discussed.

In addition, please note that I used the copies of last years forms which I had sent in then; I put white tape over the signature areas and dates and then photocopied them. The enclosed Annual Reports are such photocopies.

I have found this whole matter of not having received the 1999 notices very stressful. I suspect that someone in my local post office is "dumping" them since there are so many of such notices being sent out at one time by your offices. I am bringing this to the attention of the post office superintendent in South Miami, Florida.

I apologize for the inconvenience, and also, thank you for your understanding and assistance.

Sincerely yours,

Avery A. Ugent ("Jack"), President
