Re. H07321
TOC Productions, Inc.
Annual Report

To whom it may concern:

We recently received your correspondence, dated May 22, 2006, regarding the above-captioned annual report. We immediately called your office to explain the delay in our receiving this document and seek your advise on how to proceed, as today is your 30-day reply deadline. We explained to Eula, with whom we spoke, that we moved in May and much of our mail was literally lost until recently. We also informed her that the person who needs to sign the annual report would be out of town until today. Eula advised us to send an explanation when we returned the signed document.

The reason it wasn't signed is because we printed the filing document from your website. On each one, the signature line is cut off so we did not see that it needed to be signed. We are very sorry for this oversight and respectfully request that the $400.00 late fee be waived.

Since we have just moved, please change your records to reflect our new address:

TOC Productions, Inc.
1069 W. Morse Boulevard
Winter Park, FL 32789-3711

We sincerely appreciate your understanding that we sent the annual report on time and in good faith and hope that you will, because of circumstances beyond our control, waive the late fee.

Very truly yours,

Catherine G. Clouse
Director of Finance
