Re: Juliette's Cornucopia Company
A Florida Corporation

Dear Sir or Madam:

I have been in conversation with your office on several occasions recently regarding the dissolution of the above corporation because of the failure to file the 1998 Annual Report. This annual report was never received because the principal office address and the mailing address shown on your records was incorrect. I was advised by your office that the annual report was returned "undelivered" to your office.

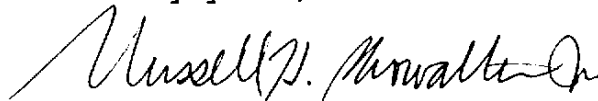

I have further been advised that due to this error, the corporation will not be penalized for reinstatement, provided an appropriate application for reinstatement is filed, together with payment of $300.00 representing the 1998 and the 1999 annual report fees.

The corporation is enclosing under this cover Application for Reinstatement which, among other things, corrects the principal office and mailing address, and changes the registered agent.

In addition, the corporation is enclosing a check payable to the Department of State in the amount of $300.00.

If you have any further questions, you may give me a call or call the president of the corporation at the number shown on the enclosed reinstatement form.

Sincerely yours,

Russell H. Showalter, Jr.
