Gentlemen,

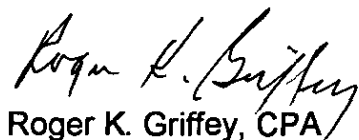

I received the 2000 Uniform business report form in the mail today. To my surprise, it said "Second Notice" with a fee of $550.00. That was a surprise because I have never received a "First Notice". I immediately called your office and a gentleman there told me to send this letter, along with the completed form and a check for the normal charge. The form and check are enclosed.

I did have a change of address last year. However, this change was reported last year on my Annual Corporation Report, which was filed on April 16, 1999. I notice on my new report that the address you sent it to is 1941 White Wing Place instead of 19141 White Wing Place (I did have it correct on last years report). Perhaps that error was the reason that I did not receive the first form.

I have been incorporated since 1984 and have always received my Annual Domestic Corporation Report from in January. I have never failed to file it on time when I had the necessary forms. Since I had no form this year, the filing date went by and I didn't even think about it.

I respectfully request that you accept my annual report and my payment as filed properly.

Sincerely,

Roger K. Griffey, CPA
