Dear Sir or Madam (Ref # H17219)

Could you please help me? I am trying desperately to pay my 1996 State of Florida Corporation fees. My most recent attempt--please see the attached--was returned to my other "officer" in Cincinnati because it was sent to the wrong address. (I used the same address as on your envelope, but I am sending it again to that address in hopes that it got lost in your office somehow and that someone there really can help me!)

What I am trying to avoid is paying a huge penalty because I did not file on time last year. I live in Germany, and somehow, the form didn't get to me here. When I realized this, as I was paying my 1996 US taxes, I tried to pay my fee. I have since (on April 14, 1996) tried to pay my 1997 fee, but you have not cashed my check.

As I explained in the other letter, attached, the sole business of this corporation is a 39 acre citrus grove that loses money hand over fist! I am the only shareholder, so this comes right out of my pocket. I hope to get the grove profitable again, but paying the State of Florida a penalty of some kind to get current on my corporation fee will not help! So, can you please cash my checks and change the address of the Corporation to the one above (my old lawyer in Cincinnati) or to Am Kaltenborn 14, 61462 Konigstein, Germany so I get this all clear once again.

Thanks for your help.

John N. Lilly
