Division of Corporations Annual Reports Filings P.O. Box 1500 Tallahassee, FL 32302-1500

To Whom it May Concern:

We were advised by the representative receiving telephone inquiries at the Annual Reports section of the Division of Corporations to attach this letter to our annual report filing.

We recently received a "2nd Notice" Annual Report Packet, telling us that we are late and assessing what we feel is an exorbitant late fee in addition to the annual filing fee, but this is the first notice and packet that we have received this year. We don't know if there were some problems with the mail-out from Tallahassee, or if it was lost in the mail, but our address is the same as last year, and we received the packet just fine last year, as well as all previous years since 1984 that we have been incorporated.

This is not a case of neglect or disregard for timely filing on our part, and your records should reflect that to our recollection we have never filed late, but have always returned the packet on time, in all of the years that we have been incorporated. We would be willing to sign a sworn affidavit or even take a polygraph test to reinforce our statement that we never received the intial annual report packet. In the future, even though this is something that happens only once a year during busy season, and is hard to remember if the packet never comes in the mail, we intend to make a note somehow, to ourselves, to call the Division of Corporations if we have not received a packet by March or April. ١n consideration of this, our past record, and on the advice of the representative, we are respectfully attaching this letter along with the normal filing fee of $150.00 for your consideration. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Them the Heren

Thomas M. Herbert, S/V/D
