SECRETARY OF STATE
TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

Dear Anna Chestnut,

First and foremost, allow me to compliment you on your demeanor and courtesy. With the exception of speaking with you, my previous contacts with the department have been less than exemplary.

As per our conversation this afternoon, I am sending this letter.

My first letter was sent on or soon after a letter from what I thought to be the division, and replayed.

I did not receive my first notice.

I sent my letter with my check which was cashed including the 8.75 for the certificate that I always requested for the past 20 years.

The check was cashed and I took for granted all was well and should receive my certificate.

Within time I received a letter that the State had Administratively dissolved my Corporation. Much to my surprise, I said fine. I have not that time or intention to jump through hoop after hoop and conversation after conversation and letter after letter.

The end result is/was our conversation this afternoon.

- 1.) No first correspondence.
- 2.) No letter of conditions.
- 3.) Letter of dissolution, 9 days after the actual dissolution.

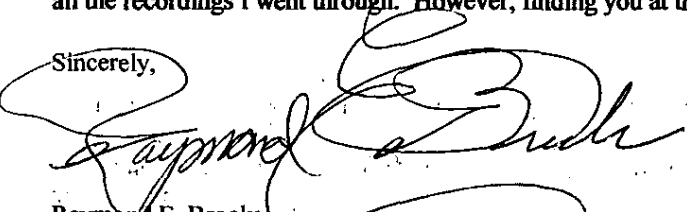

Again, I would like to state that you were totally refreshing to speak to and I truly hope those who are in charge if not you should say "Gee, we got a good one here", "Maybe we should have more like her".

Well I truly hope this arrives to you as promised.

By the way, if the parties in charge check the news stations and post office, we were having mailbox robberies at this scope of time. We were instructed to notify the Post Master, but if you don't expect something coming then how would one know.

Again thanks for your assistance, it was truly appreciated to speak with an intelligent individual instead of all the recordings I went through. However, finding you at the end of the line, was too good.

Sincerely,

Raymond E. Brooks
