Mr. Leonard,

I am in receipt of your e-mail in regards to the administrative dissolution of the above referenced corporation.

Our records indicate we did receive the annual report and deposited the check on April 7, 1999. The annual report was not filed and a copy of the report was returned for corrections on April 13, 1999. The annual report was not signed by an officer or director of the corporation, no signature was on the document. To date, we have not received the corrected report, therefore the corporation was administratively dissolved on September 24, 1999.

If you did not receive the April 13, 1999 correspondence, please complete the reinstatement application and submit it along with a letter stating you did not receive the April 13, 1999 correspondence and will reverse the administrative dissolution. If you did receive the correspondence and failed to respond, you will need to reinstate at this time by completing the reinstatement application. The fee to reinstate is $750.00, there would be a balance due of $600.00.

I apologize for the inconvenience you have experienced in calling our office, the administrative dissolution notices for over 100,000 corporations were mailed over the weekend, and our calls have dramatically increased as a result.

Before mailing the annual reports or dissolution notices, we pay additional fees to run the mailing through the Post Office's national change of address to make every effort to get the annual report delivered to the corporation. This could explain how you received the notice, without the address change being on file with our office.

Please contact me should you require any additional information.

Sincerely,

Sean Toner

I did not receive the April 13th report & be corrected.
