In regards to document # H31098(7) Peg-Ag Ent., Inc. This is a second notice you have sent me. I have not, to this date of the second notice received a first notice. We have since changed addresses from our 1996 filing, which is probably why we never received it.

If you check your records back from 1984 which is when this corporation was formed it will reveal to you that it has never been filed late. I will ask that you respectfully review this annual report and release me from the late fee penalty that I have incurred as a result of this. I will abide by your decision.

I have enclosed a check for $165.00 for the original amount due. Please advise me of your decision. I have provided the new mailing address on your form. I am very sorry for any inconvenience.

Sincerely,

Joseph P. Trinkaus,
President
