Re: Tamcom Corporation 592747932
Monarch Building Corporation 592512554

We enclose our checks of $150, each to cover the fees due for 2000 for the above captioned corporations and respectfully request that the penalties for each corporation be abated.

When we received the second notices we realized that the initial forms had not been received in New York. We then completed the attached. These corporations are completely inactive and any correspondence between any activity in Florida and the offices are nil. In addition, the offices where the mail was finally received, 18 East 48th Street NYC, were under renovation during this period which added to this delay.

We have not been late previously and ask again that the enclosed checks be accepted without penalty. Thank you.

Michael S. Rapaport
