To Whom it may concern:

In accordance with the instructions given me over the phone from your office, I am enclosing the $150.00 fee for my 2000 corporation registration. I am asking for reinstatement without penalty for the following reasons, which I hope you can appreciate.

On my last application, I made a mailing address change, which was incorrectly entered by your office personnel. Both the address(B instead of N) and the zip code were mistakes. Your mailing of the 2000 application probably went to the incorrect zip code of 32245 which is what you show on the mailing address of the application. We received neither the application or the courtesy letter telling us we were late in filing. The US Postal Service must have returned one or both of them to you, because this application for reinstatement has the 32225 zip, which did get forwarded. Someone in your office must have found the mistake.

We have always made timely applications and hope you share our feelings in regard to the errors involved. Please process our application and make the changes involved. Thank you very much for your understanding in these matters.

Sincerely,

Harry Haydon Fouke, Jr.
President
