RE: Seagrape Bay Development Corporation

Application for Reinstatement

Dear Sir or Madam:

We are the certified public accountants for the above referenced corporation. It has been discovered that the corporate annual report for 1999 was not filed and that an administrative dissolution occurred on 9/24/99. We are enclosing the Application for Reinstatement, along with two checks for the filing fee and reinstatement fee. Due to a real estate closing on October 27th 1999, we request that the reinstatement be processed immediately. We are requesting abatement of the reinstatement fee and have included a separate check for this amount. We would like to request that the reinstatement be processed immediately, even if you are unable to make a determination on the abatement of the penalty. We request that your office hold the check for $600.00 until you have made a final determination in this case.

We are requesting that the reinstatement fee be abated. The President of the Company, O. B. Thompson died on March 14th 1999. Mr. Thompson was the officer that handled all the financial matters of the company, including the filing of the annual report. Upon Mr. Thompson's death, the remaining shareholders/officers took over the administration of the corporation. Not being familiar with the daily operation of the company, Mrs. Lerria Higgins, Secretary of the Company, paid all bills that were presented to her for the company. She never received the Corporate Annual Report form; therefore it was never filed. Mrs. Higgins was advised on Saturday, October 16th, 1999 by the realtor representing the Company in a pending sale of the dissolution. This is the first knowledge she has of the situation and is taking prompt action to remedy such.

It has taken several months to locate all the records of the company. In fact, the operating checkbook has never been located. We have just finished the bookkeeping from bank statements for the first three months of the year. Had we had all the records prior to May, we are confident the oversight would have been discovered and the form timely filed.

The mailing address on the 1998 report reflects a post office box that Mr. Thompson used in Sarasota. Mrs. Higgins has never received any correspondence from the Department relating to the filing of the 1999 report. It was believed that all mail was being sent to the new address, but any prior notices have not been received.

Due to the death of Mr. Thompson and the prompt actions of the other shareholders upon discovering the dissolution, we request that all late filing fees be abated. If the abatement is granted, we request that you return check #4234, which is enclosed.

We thank you in advance for your prompt attention and cooperation in this matter. If our office can be of further assistance, please do not hesitate to call.

Sincerely,

RICCIANI, MATHIS & JESSEN
