Division of Corporations State of Florida Annual Report Section P.O. Box 6327 Tallahassee, FL 32314-6327

On April 25, 1997, I wrote a check (C&B Enterprises check # 2657) and placed it in the mail box at the Jacksonville, FL, Southpoint Post Office along with the registration form, as payment for my 1997 Annual Corporation Registration.

Recently I receive another notice and registration form stating that my filing had not been made and requesting to comply with the registration process.

Today I called the Division of Corporations to inquire. I explained that I had completed my original registration form and mailed my check, however, that check never cleared my account. I was told to re-submit my application, and to replace the original check in the amount of $165.00. Enclosed please find my re-registration, a replacement check (this check is in the amount of $173.75 to include the fee for a Certificate of Status).

Over the past couple of years, there have been episodes of mail not being received when mailed from my local post office. I can only assume that this transaction is another episode of "lost" mail at the post office level. Please accept this explanation and grant an exception for the "late" filing of my 1997 Corporate Fee.

Thank you.

Sincerely

Robert B. Davis C&B Enterprises of Jacksonville, Inc.
